Welcome

Orange County has a network of providers that offer services to persons living with HIV (PLWH). As a community, our goal is to provide quality care and services that improve the health and wellness of Orange County residents living with HIV.

This handbook describes the federally-funded HIV services that are available in Orange County. There is also a resource directory for additional services that may be helpful. Please take some time to look through the handbook and learn about services that may be available to you or someone you know.

In addition to information about services, we have included information on federally-funded Ryan White Act and Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS (HOPWA) programs and how you can get involved in community planning.

We are glad that you have found us, and we are committed to work with you to provide the highest-quality services possible to meet your needs. You can find us online at http://ochealthinfo.com/phs/about/dcepi/hiv.
HIV / AIDS Basics

What is HIV?
Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV) is the virus that causes Acquired Immune Deficiency Syndrome (AIDS). HIV harms white blood cells (CD4+ cells) that are an important part of a person’s immune system. Without treatment, HIV gradually weakens the body’s defenses against disease, leaving it helpless to fight many infections and cancers. With treatment, drugs can slow or stop the harmful effects of HIV so that many people with HIV can live longer, healthier lives.

What is AIDS?
AIDS is a medical condition resulting from HIV infection, usually after many years. By the time a person is diagnosed with AIDS by a doctor, HIV has seriously hurt the body’s immune system. There are effective treatments to prevent and treat AIDS-related illnesses.

How is HIV Transmitted?
A person living with HIV can pass the disease to another person whether or not they look sick, have an AIDS diagnosis, or are on medication.

Here are some ways a person may become infected with HIV:

- Sex: Semen, pre-cum, vaginal fluids, or anal mucus containing HIV can enter a person’s body during sex.
- Sharing Needles: Examples include needles used for: medicine, drugs, tattoos, or other reasons. HIV can enter the body of a person when blood that contains HIV enters the body.
- Cut or Wound in the Skin: Sex fluid or blood can enter the person’s body through an opening in the skin.
- Blood Transfusions: HIV may be passed through blood transfusions; however, donated blood has been tested since 1985 and treated to kill the virus, so the risk of transmission in this way is now very low.
- Mother-to-Child: HIV may be passed from an HIV-positive mother to her baby during pregnancy or through breast milk. An expectant mother should talk to her doctor about options regarding breastfeeding. While HIV can be passed from a mother to her child, medical advances have greatly reduced the risk of transmission during pregnancy and during childbirth.
HIV and the Immune System

HIV can hurt a person’s immune system. Over time, if the immune system becomes seriously damaged, the body loses the ability to fight different illnesses, called opportunistic infections or conditions. Examples of opportunistic infections are pneumocystis pneumonia (PCP) and Kaposi’s sarcoma. Without treatment, some people can feel well for about 10 years before they feel the first serious symptoms.

While we still do not know how HIV harms the immune system, there are many things that we do know for sure:

- A person can take a test that measures the amount of HIV in their blood. These are called viral load tests. These tests can help a doctor estimate how long it might take for HIV to hurt the immune system. The higher the viral load in the bloodstream, the faster the disease might progress. To slow down the progression of the disease, there are effective treatments that can reduce the level of virus.

- A person can take a test that measures the level of white blood cell called a CD4+ cell. This test helps the doctor measure how healthy the immune system is. Medical treatment can help slow the decline of the immune system.

- The body seems to manage the HIV virus for a long time, usually several years. The number and percentage of CD4+ cells may go down over time, indicating that the immune system is getting weaker. During this time, most people do not feel sick; however, the immune system is getting weaker. Seeing the doctor early has the biggest impact on a person’s ability to stay healthy.

- If a person with HIV does not get treatment, their body could slowly lose its ability to fight infections. Patients with CD4+ counts above 300 cells per cubic millimeter of blood may get minor infections, so it is important to see a doctor regularly even when the CD4+ count is high. Patients with CD4+ counts under 200 are more likely to get infections. Other life-threatening infections become more likely when the count falls below 100.
Getting and staying in medical care is the most important thing a person can do to stay healthy. Do not wait until you are sick to see a doctor. Other things that you can do to stay healthy are:

- Eat a healthy diet: A healthy low fat diet can boost the immune system. Raw foods should be avoided because they may carry harmful bacteria that can cause infections. Fresh fruits and vegetables should be washed or cooked well to avoid contamination.

- Exercise regularly: Adults need two types of physical activity, aerobic (e.g., brisk walking) and muscle strengthening. Moderate aerobic activity should be done at least two and a half hours every week. Muscle strengthening should be done two or more days a week.

- Stay healthy: Avoid getting sick (e.g., cold, flu) or getting infections (e.g., STDs, Hepatitis) that can weaken the immune system.

- Take medications as prescribed: Taking medications exactly how they are meant to be taken is also important to staying healthy. HIV medications must be taken as prescribed. When medications are not taken the way they are supposed to be, the virus can become resistant to the medication. This means that the medication will no longer work to protect the immune system.

Information on services available in Orange County begins on page 5. These services are designed to help a person remain in medical care and stay healthy.
HIV Services in Orange County

The first cases of AIDS in Orange County were identified in 1981. Since then, the Orange County Health Care Agency, through the HIV Planning and Coordination unit, has been working with community-based providers to offer services and educational efforts to combat the HIV epidemic in Orange County. The Health Care Agency and its service providers are committed to reducing the transmission of HIV and providing services to enhance the length and quality of life of persons living with HIV (PLWH).

Ryan White Act and Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS (HOPWA)-funded services are available to HIV-positive residents of Orange County who meet certain eligibility and qualification requirements. Eligibility and qualifications for each service varies. Some requirements include financial limitations or medical criteria. A complete list of Ryan White Act and HOPWA-funded services, including any eligibility or qualifying requirements, begins on page 10 of this handbook. A list of Ryan White and HOPWA-funded service providers are shown starting on page 23.

In addition to Ryan White Act and HOPWA-funded services, there are many other types of services available to persons living with HIV (PLWH) in Orange County. You can find a list of local and national resources available to HIV-positive individuals starting on page 6 of this handbook.

How to Use Services
After you have reached out to a service provider, a staff person can help you find services or develop a plan of care that is best for you. Before your services can start, you will be asked to give some information about yourself and sign paperwork. You will also need to provide documentation of your HIV status, proof of income, and proof that you live in Orange County. By law, all of your information will be kept private and confidential. Please see page 2 for frequently asked questions about getting services in Orange County.
About the Ryan White Act

The Ryan White Act funds services available to persons living with HIV. The Act was named as a memorial to a teenager from Indiana named Ryan White. Because of discrimination he faced, Ryan dedicated himself to educating the public and Congress about HIV before he died of the illness in 1990. The Ryan White Act is the largest piece of federal legislation that offers funding for the care and treatment of persons living with HIV.

The intent of the Ryan White Act is to help those persons living with HIV with no other source of healthcare or those with insurance but whose care needs are not being met.

Three main goals of the Ryan White Act are:
- To lessen the barriers of treatment and care in areas most affected by HIV.
- To coordinate treatment and support of HIV services.
- To build a community-based, response to HIV by local organizations and advocates, as well as local public entities.

The Health Care Agency’s HIV Planning and Coordination Unit works with a Board of Supervisor’s-appointed community body, the HIV Planning Council, to oversee funds.

The HIV Planning Council prioritizes and allocates the funds for different services. Please refer to page 33 for more information about the HIV Planning Council. The County of Orange is then responsible for securing contracts with service providers for these services.
About Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS (HOPWA)

The Housing Opportunities for Persons with AIDS (HOPWA) Program provides support for housing assistance and services to low-income persons living with HIV and their families. The program was established in 1991 by the AIDS Housing Opportunities Act. The U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD) awards HOPWA funds to the most populous city in each eligible metropolitan area.

In Orange County, the City of Anaheim administers the HOPWA grant funds for all of Orange County. A portion of these funds is subcontracted to the County of Orange for supportive services.

Providing Feedback on Services

Your feedback is important to us. Feedback lets providers know if services provided are meeting client needs. It can also help to improve services. There are several ways to provide feedback. Below are a few examples:

- Suggestion Boxes: Most provider locations have suggestion drop boxes. Providing comments in the suggestion box can be an easy way to give your feedback about services. You do not have to put your name on your suggestion card.

- Client Satisfaction Surveys: Filling out client satisfaction surveys are another good way to share what you think of the services that you are getting. On even years (for example, 2018, 2020), the Orange County Health Care Agency conducts a Client Satisfaction Survey for all Ryan White-funded services. Some providers also conduct surveys on their own at other times throughout the year. Providers review the results of these surveys very seriously, so please take the time to fill them out when you get one. Surveys are anonymous (you do not have to put your name on them).

Complaints and Grievances

Providers in the Ryan White Act system are committed to providing services that are respectful of your rights and needs. Please see a list of your rights and responsibilities starting on page 4 of this handbook. If at any time you feel that a service provider is not honoring your rights as a client, you have the right to file a complaint and/or grievance.

What is a complaint?

A complaint is an informal verbal or written statement submitted by a client or a client’s authorized representative that they are not satisfied with the services that they are receiving.

What is a grievance?

A grievance is a formal complaint that has reached the stage where the affected party is looking for structured approach to its resolution.

Our goal is to ensure that all complaints and grievances are resolved quickly and are first addressed with the staff or service provider involved.
Resolving Problems and Complaints

The following are the steps you should take to resolve problems:

1. Identify and be prepared to discuss what you think is a fair solution to the problem.

2. Try to resolve the problem with the provider by talking to the staff about your complaint. The provider must listen to your complaint and try to find a resolution.

3. Talk to a supervisor at the provider’s office about your complaint if you do not feel it was resolved by talking to staff.

4. If your complaint is not addressed by talking to supervisor, you have the right to file a formal grievance using the provider’s grievance policy. Be prepared to write down or talk about the following:
   - Date and time of the event(s)
   - Who the event(s) involves
   - What you think would be a fair resolution

Most issues are successfully resolved between the client and the provider. If you are still unable to resolve your complaint after following the grievance process, you have the right to file a formal appeal with HIV Planning and Coordination.

How to File a Grievance Appeal to HIV Planning and Coordination

HIV Planning and Coordination (HIVPAC) at the Orange County Health Care Agency will review grievance appeals from clients that were not resolved after following the provider’s grievance process. You may file a formal appeal with HIVPAC in any of the following ways:

In Person or by Mail:

HIV Planning and Coordination
1725-B W. 17th Street
P.O. Box 6099, Bldg. 50B
Santa Ana, CA 92706

or Phone: (714) 834-8399
or Fax: (714) 834-8270
Response from HIV Planning and Coordination

HIV Planning and Coordination (HIVPAC) will work with you and the service provider named in the grievance appeal to find the best resolution. If necessary, there is a formal appeal process and a Grievance Appeal Review Panel to help in resolving the grievance appeal. You will receive a letter notifying you of the grievance appeal process and outcome.

HIVPAC shall ensure that there is no discrimination or retaliation against a client that has filed a grievance.
HIV Planning Council

The Orange County HIV Planning Council (Council), established in 1987, makes recommendations to the County Health Officer about HIV-related issues.

The Council collaborates with the Health Care Agency to conduct a needs assessment to find out about the service needs of persons living with HIV. Using the needs assessments and other data, the Council prioritizes the HIV service needs of the community and allocates funds to the service categories.

The Council includes individuals with specific expertise such as health care planning, housing for the homeless, incarcerated populations, substance abuse and mental health treatment, or who represent other Ryan White Act and federal Programs. At least 33% of the members are Orange County residents living with HIV and are not employees, board members, or owners of contracted agencies. The Planning Council’s Membership Committee welcomes applications for appointment by the Board of Supervisors.

For more information regarding the Council or committees, please contact HIV Planning Council Support at (714) 834-8399 or visit us on online at: http://ochealthinfo.com/HIVCouncil

In order to make sure that the community and persons living with HIV are involved, the Council welcomes interested individuals to participate in the Council process. All meetings are open to the public.

New Client Frequently Asked Questions

1. I just found out that I am HIV-positive or I just moved to Orange County and have HIV. Where can I find information about services available to me in Orange County?
   You can find out about services that may be available to you on the Orange County HIV Planning and Coordination unit website at: www.ochealthinfo.com/HIVServices

2. What is Ryan White?
The Ryan White Act is a federal program that is designed to help make sure that persons living with HIV get and stay in medical care. Examples of services include Case Management, Dental Services, Medical Transportation, Food Pantry, and Mental Health Counseling.

3. Should I be enrolled in case management?
   Newly diagnosed individuals may benefit from Case Management. Clients only need to be enrolled in case management services if they need regular follow up by a case manager in order to get or stay in medical care.

4. Do I have to be enrolled in an agency to access services at that agency?
   No. Ryan White services are open to any client who qualifies for services, regardless of where the client is case managed or gets other services.

   Keep in mind that some agencies offer services that are not Ryan White-funded and they may restrict those services to their clients.

5. Can I access services at more than one agency?
   It depends. Some services are only offered at one agency. To find out which services are offered at which agencies, contact one of the agencies listed on the HIV Planning and Coordination website: www.ochealthinfo.com/HIVServices. There should be no reason to get the same service at different agencies.
6. How do I know if I qualify for a service?
There are different eligibility requirements for Ryan White services and these requirements can sometimes change. If you do not have a case manager, the best way to find out about eligibility requirements for a service is to contact one of the case management agencies listed on the HIV Planning and Coordination website: www.ochealthinfo.com/HIVServices.

7. I have an eligibility appointment, what should I expect?
An eligibility screener will review documents that are needed to determine eligibility for the Ryan White program and other programs that you may qualify for, such as the AIDS Drug Assistance Program (ADAP), Medi-Cal (CalOptima), or private insurance. A sample of eligibility documents needed include: proof of HIV status, proof of Orange County residency, proof of disability (only required for certain services), and income documents. You may be asked to submit additional documents to determine if you qualify for services.

8. Why do I have to give so much information about myself to get services?
Ryan White services are funded by the federal government, which requires specific information about clients and the services that they receive. This information helps to ensure that funds are being used to help people living with HIV. This information also helps make sure that funding continues to be available to help clients that have no other source to pay for their care.

9. What is ARIES?
ARIES is the Ryan White client database. ARIES is used to capture data required by the federal government for Ryan White services. Data is also used to identify trends in service needs.

10. Is my information private?
Please be assured that all staff who work with Ryan White are required to follow strict guidelines to make sure that information about you stays confidential. If you have any questions about how your information is handled by an agency, you may ask to see their “Notice of Privacy Practices.”
11. I am not happy with the services that I am receiving. What can I do?
Providers in the Ryan White Act system are dedicated to providing services that are respectful of your rights and needs. A list of your rights and responsibilities is available in the Client Handbook on page 8. If at any time you feel that a service provider has failed to honor your rights, please try to resolve the problem with the provider by talking to the staff or supervisor about your complaint. The provider must listen to your complaint and try to find a resolution. If your complaint is not addressed, you have the right to file a formal grievance using the provider’s grievance policy. Be prepared to write down or talk about the date and time of the event(s), who the event(s) involves, and what you think would be a fair resolution.
