Subject: Assistant EMS Director Announcement

Orange County Emergency Medical Services (OCEMS) is pleased to announce, Jesse Allured as Assistant EMS Director. Jesse will be responsible for the operational components of the EMS Division that develop, implement, evaluate and coordinate the County's prehospital emergency medical delivery system. This includes regulatory oversight of ambulance companies, emergency medical technicians, hospital specialty designations and health disaster planning and preparedness grant programs.

Jesse has a Bachelor of Science in Fire and Emergency Management from Purdue University and is a licensed Paramedic and certified Fire Officer in the state of California. He has over 20 years of experience in EMS, with eight (8) of those years working in the public sector. Mr. Allured previously worked as Director and Chief of Falck Ambulance Company where he was responsible for oversight of ambulance and EMS resources, policy and procedure creation and the development of the company's emergency operational plan. Prior to his position at Falck Ambulance Company, Mr. Allured was the Deputy EMS Administrator for Contra Costa County for over four (4) years. As Deputy Administrator, he was responsible for oversight of prehospital care and collaboration with EMS constituents to ensure emergency preparedness.

With the continued development and administration of the EMS system Jesse is well prepared to provide the leadership and facilitation necessary in seeing the EMS system well into the future. We welcome Jesse into his role as the Assistant EMS Director.
